PALM TREE WINS THE MOHAWK

BEATS THE HEAVILY BACKED GAMARA AT SARATOGA.

Pretension Takes the Handleap From Colonial Girl-H. P. Whitney Provides Two Winners in Battleaxe and Comet -Tanya's Sister, Tangle, Victorious.

SARATOGA, Aug. 1 .- Only two favorites were successful here to-day, and the book-makers got the bulk of the money. R. T. on, Jr.'s, Gamara lost a fortune for the smart players when he was defeated in the Selling Stakes, for three-year-olds. at nine furlongs. Gamara was the overnight election. He figured a sure thing with all the handicappers, and when he opened at 7 to 5 the flood of gold was so great that he was soon pounded down to 7 to 10. Practically every plunger at the track played the Wilson with only 96 pounds up and little McDaniel

In the saddle Gamara looked to have the other starters at his mercy, so that there were liberal prices against E. R. Bradley's Palm Tree and Woodford Clay's Angler, the supposed con-tenders. Palm Tree opened at 5 to 2, but went up to 9 to 2, with 7 to 1 always on tap against Angler. Jennie McCabe, 12 to 1, Angler and Kehallan, 15 to 1, were the leaders at the three-quarter pole, Gamara and Palm Tree having left the post slowly. In the stretch the pacemakers tired and Gamara looked the winner, but only for a moment, as he hung in his stride, and also swerved at the last sixteenth pole, which enabled Willie Knapp to run over him with Palm Tree, who won cleverly by two lengths in 1:55. Gamara had four lengths over Jennie McCabe, with Angler eight lengths away.

Jack Bennett put over a real good thing in Pretension, the winner of the handicap Pretension opened at 5 to 1 and was pounded down to 13 to 5, closing favorite at this quotation. Colonial Girl, with top weight, meanwhile, carried a pile of smart oney at threes, with W. H. Snyder's Tyron and August Belmont's Blandy also in some favor. But there was nothing to it but Pre-tension when the field was sent away, for Burns took him quickly to the front, where he made every furlong pole a winning one and passed the judge, an easy winner by two lengths in 1:41. Inferno was the runner-up for half a mile, and then gave way to Colonial Girl, who proved to be much the best of the others and ran into the place with a safe margin over Tyron. The latter lost some ground at the start, but ran a good race and beat Blandy by half a length, there being no excuses for Mr. Belmont's colt.

Harry Payne Whitney won two races, with Battleaxe and Comet, both sired by Ham-Battleaxe was an odds-on favorite in the first race, for two-year-olds, five and a half furlongs. With Hildebrand up, he showed his heels to the others and won handily by two lengths in 1 08 2-5. Sydney Paget's inleydale, who was played down to 4 to 1, began slowly, as usual, but closed with a remarkable turn of speed and nailed the place by two lengths from J. L. Holland's Master-son, a 40 to 1 shot – Jerry Wernberg, lowered to 12 to 1, was apparently out of it in the run up the backstretch, but he made up a lot of ground in the run home, and would have been third in another stride Snow, another good thing, was a factor up to the last quarer, where he blew up.

Comet, carrying the Whitney colors, also worn by Hildebrand, got out of the maiden class in the sixth race, at six furlongs. He was backed down to 7 to 2, an equal second choice with Conquest. There was a heavy plunge on Mr. Paget's Bass, who was ham-mered down from 9 to 2 to 16 to 5 favorite, after which he was never prominent H. B. Duryea's Pioneer, also by Hamburg, a 6 to 1 good thing, had a big lead at one period of the race, but he weakened in the last furlong. and Comet, who had been in hand all the

the race, but he weakened in the last furlong, and Comet, who had been in hand all the way, experienced no trouble in beating him a length and a half in 1:151-5. Pioneer finished two lengths before J. Grant Lyman's Grand Duchess, 6 to 1, with Bella Signora a length and a half back. Grand Duchess closed a big gap at the end.

Tangle, a full sister to the fanious Tanya, was victorious in the third event, for maiden two-year-old fillies, five and a half furlongs. She ran in the name and colors of F. R. Hitchcock and was lowered two points to 6 to 1. Mr. Whitney's coupled entry, Perverse and Commune, both by Meddler, ruled the choice at 6 to 5, with August Belmont's Bivouac, T. D. Sullivan's Caprice and E. R. Thomas's Yalagal all in favor. Hester W., 20 to 1, had early speed, with Commune also at the head of the procession, but they stopped at the leadership with Tangle, who won in a gallop thur, by the start. Yet he managed to get third money. Willie Knapp meanwhile brought Greenerest, heavily backed at 16 to 5, home an easy winner by a length and a half, Inough poorly ridden, Kansas Price's Uncle Urigh 15 to 1, landed the place. Itemry Bert, backed down to 7 to 2, had a world of speed for seven furlongs, but was short. The mile was run in 1:421-5. W. Knapp and Hildebrand each rode two winners. The summaries:

RIFLE TOURNEY ENDS.

Capt. Corwin, Seventy-first Regiment, Wins New York State Championship.

CREEDMOOR, Aug. 1.—Capt. G. W. Corwin of the Seventy-first Regiment won the championship of the New York State Rifle Association in the individual match of the association to-day and, incidentally, added another to the brilliant list of victories scored by the Seventy-first in the meeting which closed this afternoon. The New York State Rifle Association match comprises three long range distances, 800, 900 and 1,000 yards, with seven shots at each distance, the twenty highest competitors then settling the match he Seventy-first's long distance crack, led at the end of the three long ranges with a total of 90, with Corwin second at 82 and Lieuts. Ranney and Jenkins, both of the Seventy first, tied at 79. Corwin's run was 80, with 16 shots on the prone figure, Casey dropping back to third place with a run of 64 and Sergt. Short of the Seventh moving up to second with a run of 82.

The strong head wind, constantly shifting from left to right, called for fine shooting, and the match made an interesting finish for the meeting. Last year's winner, Capt. Wells of the Seventy-first, finished in seventh

In the afternoon the riflemen devoted their attention to the individual matches at the short, mid and long ranges and the rapid fire. The revolver and pistol targets were centers of activity also, as conditions for scoring improved materially in the afternoon.

While the final results of the individual matches have not been fully compiled, the long range match at 1,000 yards was won by Casey of the Seventy-first with 101 out of a possible 105. Lieut. Jenkins, the Demoratic leader of Westchester, was second with 100, and Capt. Wells third with 97. Casey also captured the mid range match at 600, scoring 103 out of 105. Wells was second with 102, Short and Corwin scoring third and fourth with the same figures, and W. G. Hudson fifth with 101. The short range match went to Hudson with a soore of 101, and Sergt. Leushner, with 145, took the rapid fire match, with Sergt. Baptist of the marines second with 142.

Tom Anderton improved his revolver scores by the afternoon's work. He won the rapid fire reentry revolver match with 152 points, and the re-entry revolver match with 146, inishing second in the reentry pistol match with 142. M. H. Smith with 182 won the disappearing target match, and A. L. A. Himmelright the reentry pistol match with 145.

A. W. Putnam was second to Anderton in the rapid fire reentry revolver event, with 127.

the rapid fire reentry revolver event, with 127.

The highest Schuetzen scores were: R. Gute, 213: O. Smith, 204.

The meeting, which was opened last Wednesday, proved to be an unqualified success in every particular, and financially was several hundred dollars in advance of last September's meeting, the first of the association. The matches attracted three or four times the number of teams entered last year, and, while the Seventy-first's crack shots captured all the firsts and one second in the team matches, they were far from one-sided contests and furnished excellent sport. The Marine Corps finished second to the Seventy-first in every match but the company team match, where the marines were beaten for second place by Company D of the Seventy-first Regiment. New Jersey failed to score better than third in the McAlpin match, while the Navy scored a third in the Seventy-first Regiment rapid fire and skirmish match.

The State range will be closed to-morrow, preparatory to the State meet, which will be shot on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. On Thursday the Brigade and Major-General's matches will be held, on Friday the Adjutant-General's and the Governor's, and on Saturday the State match.

TAX BETTING COMMISSIONERS.

CLUBHOUSE AGENTS AT SARA-TOGA CHARGED $12 A DAY.

Bookmakers Willing to Pay $60 for Advance Information Providing Old Admission of $2 Is Charged-Plungers Requested to Keep Their Wagers Down.

SARATOGA, Aug. 1 .-- It is the intention of the managers of the Saratoga Racing Association to make this meeting pay, no matter who has to furnish the freight money. Yesterday the order went forth that the book-makers would have to pay 312 a day for advance information pertaining to the races, and to-day the clubhouse betting commissioners were notified that those who wished to work would have to pay a similar sum for the privilege.

This taxing of the clubhouse commissioners is a new move. Not so long ago the messengers were permitted to take bets for the clubhouse members simply by purchasing an admission badge to the track. At the Sheepshead Bay meeting the price jumped to $7 a day Now it is $12. If this sort of thing continues there will not be enough betting agents to handle the bets of the club members

The meeting has opened well, financially, and the small revenue derived from the commissioners will not be a drop in the financial bucket at the end of the season. There is sourcely more than twenty-five members in daily attendance at the clubhouse here, and the messengers have a hard time to find enough bets to pay even half the sum that they are taxed. It is the opinion here among bookmakers that next season will find a radical change both in the way the betting ring is conducted and the price of admission to the racetracks.

One of the members of the governing committee of the Mets spoke on the subject as follows:
"I believe that all the racing associations will charge $60 a day for the news of the races, such as the jockeys' names, the overweights, the withdrawals and the declarations to win, instead of the present rate of $12 per day. The association could just as easily get $60 as $12. The only wonder is that they did not do so in the beginning. The layers would readily pay the higher rate provided that the price of admission was reduced to $2 The old admission price would bring back the racing crowd in full force. With increased attendance the ring would boom and the bookmakers would handle twice the amount of money that they do to-day. Any man who offers the odds would prefer to pay a high rate for racing information and be assured of good patronage than to pay a small sum and find business practically

"I understand that during the winter the proposition will be made to have the general price of admission to the racetrack $2. The grand stand and field stand would be thrown open into one and the rate would be the same for both places. In other words, there would be no field stand, but simply one enclosure.

There is a feeling among the racing authorities that the turf would be better served if a high rate of admission is maintained; that the "sport of kings" is not for a poor man and those who have to work hard for a daily loving. If the big plungers obey the mandates of the turf authorities here this meeting will pass off without any sensational bets being recorded. The officials of the track have requested the big speculators to refrain from betting heavily on the horses. They don't mind modest wagers of $1,000 or so on a race, but they frown at $25,000 and $30,000 bet on a single contest. Such wagers the management believe cause discussion and sensational stories in the newspapers and attract attention and notoriety which is harmful to the game. The majority of the Western turimen such as John A. Drake and John W. Gates have

J. Cochran, who rode Sonoma Belle, and Murphy, who rode Uncle Urigh, in the second race, came under the displeasure of the starter by recklessly disregarding his orders while at the post. They tried to break through the barrier, and after Mr. Cassidy had warned them several times he suspended them for six days.

the barrier, and after Mr. Cassidy had warned them several times he suspended them for six days.

Old England again showed his ugly disposition while at the post and delayed the start of the second race ten or fifteen minutes by his antics. At the Brighton Beach meeting this horse became such a nuisance that the stewards ordered Starter Cassidy to limit him to five minutes and then if necessary to leave him at the post. Instead of enforcing this rule here the horse was placed on the schooling list. This will be a waste of time, as Old England has been on the schooling list times innumerable without good results.

There was a great tip out on Commune and Perverse, Harry Payne Whitney's maiden two-year-olds, in the third race. Both horses showed a lot of speed in their gallop through the stretch and the watchers scampered bell mell into the ring and bet hundreds of dollars on them. All the early even money was taken and the price against the entry fell to 4 to 5. A reaction took place, however, when the paddock contingent played Tangle from 8 to 1 down to 6 to 1. She is a nice filly by Meddler—Handspun, and she won easily. Commune, who was supposed to have beaten Perverse in private trials, finished fifth, while the despised one secured second money.

Snow, who finished fifth in the first race, beaten two heads for third honors, really should have held that position. Baird, who rode him, made one of his wide turns into the stretch, and this lost third place for his mount.

rode him, made one of his wide turns into the stretch, and this lost third place for his mount.

While the horses were circling around at the post for the start of the fourth race Fleur de Marie wheeled around suddenly and threw her jockey. Noonan. The boy was not hurt and the mare was caught before she had time to run away.

Visitors to the track this afternoon were greatly annoyed and inconvenienced by the action of the stewards, who ordered that the jockeys' names should not be displayed on the board until just before each race was called. The reason for the delay, it was learned, was due to the desire of the track management to make the bookmakers realize that they were receiving something like real advance information when they issued the jockeys' slips before each race and for which they charged $12$. In their endeavor to impress the value of this service on the minds of the bookmakers the stewards lost sight of the fact that they were causing great annoyance to their patrons who had paid $3 to see the races and were entitled to all the adjuncts of the game, such as the lockeys' names, quite as much as the layers.

An amusing incident cropped up just before the horses were sent to the post for the first race. While Harry Payne Whitney was talking with his trainer, John W. Rogers, in regard to the chance of his coil Battle Age, a young boy, dressed in a blue suit and wearing a black cap, approached them, Lifting an anxious face up to the men, he said:

"Are you trying?"

Lifting an anxious face up to the men, he said:

"Are you trying?"

For a minute the men, particularly Mr. Whitney, were astounded at such a question. Then the young multi-millionaire, noticing that the boy was in earnest and had innocently asked the question, without any intention to thus him, answered:

"Yes."

The boy, evidently greatly relieved in his mind in regard to the horse's chance and physical condition, then walked away and examined Battle Axe carefully, as he was being saddled.

To an inquiry why he had asked the question, he said that he had $2 bet on Battle Axe and wished to know if everything was all right.

Sam Hildreth stated to-day that he owned by the said the Frank Research to be said to be a said to be a said that he had $2 bet on Battle Axe and wished to know if everything was all right.

GOLFING TITLE ASPIRANTS. Canadians to Play for First Time in Cham

There are 127 entries for the national amateur golf championship, to begin on Tuesday on the course of the Chicago Golf Club at Wheaton, Ill. Some additions are on the way by mail, according to telegraphic advices, but the total in view of the easy conditions that had been framed to suit large entry, will not be as great as expected. The thirty-six hole qualifying round is to be split into two eighteen hole rounds, played on Tuesday and Wednesday, an arrangement that would permit 200 to start without congesting the course. The record of the entries in other years is: 1904. 142: 1903, 140; 1902, 157; 1901, 142: 1900, 120 1809, 120; 1800, 112: 1808, 120: 1897, 58; 1896, 88:

In class the entries leave but little to be desired, for of tried timber only Findlay S. Douglas, John M. Ward, C. H. Seely, Archi-bald Graham and A. G. Lockwood are missing from the Eastern set. H. Chandler Egan, the titleholder, who proved successful in defending his Western amateur championship, will attempt the same feat in the national, and his cousin Walter is also engaged. The list also shows last year's runner-up. Fred Herreshoff and the two bronze medalists, D. P. Fredericks and W. T. West. Former amateur champions included are Walter J. Travis, Louis N. James and C. B. Macdonald. Among likely candidates, too, are F. M. Byers, twice runner-up; G. A. Ormiston, A L. White, the Intercollegiate Golf Association champion: Percy R. Pyne, 2d. W. P. Smith, James M. No Consolidation, Says Ban Johnson. Ban Johnson, president of the American League, saw the game here yesterday, with him being President Taylor of the Boston Americans. While Byron Bancroft was munching peanuts he said there would not be any consolidation of the two major leagues. "There has not been any action to warrant the belief that there will be a merger into a twelve club league, and what's more, there will always be two eight club leagues. Baseball is better off with two big leagues. There's more rivalry in the air, and there are patrons enough to support two big leagues. So far this year the American League has played to over 200,000 more persons than it did in the same length of time last season. I called on President Pulliam this morning, but that does not mean that there was any twelve citibleague being planned.

"If looks to me," continued the president, "as if the Western teams of the American League are going to have harder sledding in the race than they have had. That is because the Eastern teams are going better. New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington are all hitting up the pace, and the present trip East of the Western teams is a critical one.

President Taylor says his team has played to bigger business than last year, notwithstanding it is in the second division. more rivalry in the air, and there are patrons

Champions Still Marching On-Another Victory Over the Cincinnatis.

The New York Nationals keep marching on. They won their twelfth consecutive victory yesterday and scored their eleventh straight victory over the Cincinnatis. Of the two accomplishments the latter is much more unusual. Eight of the Cincinnati games were played in a row, three of them having been decided when the Champions were in Cincinnati on a previous trip. Rain kept the Pittsburgs and Brocklyns apart yesterday, and the New Yorks now lead the Pirates by over a hundred points. The Philadelphias defeated the Chicagos in an eleven inning game, and the Bostons dusted the field with the Cardinals. The results:

In the eighth, however, the champs found Overall weakening and they smote the leather for a cluster so big that the Reds were out then and there. Baseball Notes. Sweeney Bros .- No. It is a foul ball.

Pitcher "Noodles" Hahn has been released by the Cincinnati club.

There is some doubt as to whether Lajole will be able to play again this season.

Waiter Concklin, New London—President Johnson says a catcher has no right to stop a pitched ball in that manner, and that the base runner was entitled to cnother base. A fielder has no right to stop a batted ball with his detached glove—see rule 54, section 7.

Jack McClelland of Pittsburg returned to the ring again on Monday night and met Jimmy Dunn of New Castle, Pa., in a fifteen round bout at Bridgeport, Ohio, before the Metropolitan A. C. The result was a draw, McClelland was not in the best of shape, and McClelland was not in the best of shape, and this was evident as soon as he had gone a few rounds. He was slow and slipshod in his movements, and his punches lacked steam. Dunn went after McClelland when he realized that his rival could not punch. The pair fought viciously in the tenth round. It looked as if McClelland was done for in this round, but he pulled himself together.

In the twelfth McClelland displayed great cleverness. He got away from several vicious swings, which had they landed would have put him out. The remaining rounds were interesting and even, and the verdict seemed to be very fair. The pair met at 128 pounds.

Boston, Aug. 1.—The continued rain to-day put a damper on the Nahant club's invitation lawn tennis tournament, only three matches being played, while four defaults were recorded. In the morning match between Lyons and Grant the latter showed lack of practise and was an easy victim. Kenneth Horton had a difficult task in putting E. W. Leonard out of the running when they met in the first of the second round matches. Leonard gave Horton a stiff battle in the first set and won the second easily. Twenty-six games were necessary to decide the third set. First Round—J. H. Davidson defeated N. P. Hallowell, 8-4, 6-2; B. B. V. Lyon defeated N. P. Hallowell, 8-4, 6-2; B. B. V. Lyon defeated P. E. Stockton, by default; C. F. Colson defeated R. Hooker, by default; F. J. Sullowsy defeated Dr. L. W. Glasebrook, by default; W. C. Grant defeated G. H. Mettleton, by default.
